

Traditional Irish Folk Songs - A Health To The Company (5)

INTRO with RIFF - [Am Em G Am] *Play after each chorus

Kind [Am]friends and com[Em]panions, come [G]join me in [Am]rhyme,
Come [C]lift up your [Am]voices in chorus with [G]mine,
Come [C]lift up your [Am]voices, all grief to ref[G*]rain,
For we [Am]may or might [Em]never all [G]meet here a[Am]gain.

Here's a [Am]health to the [Em]company, and [G]one to my [Am]lass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all out of one [G]glass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all grief to ref[G*]rain,
For we [Am]may or might [Em]never all [G]meet here a[Am]gain

Here's a [Am]health to the [Em]dear lass that [G]I love so [Am]well,
For her [C]style and her [Am]beauty, sure none can ex[G]cel,
There's a [C]smile on her [Am]countenance, as she sits on my [G]knee,
There's [Am]no man in this [Em]wide world as [G]happy as [Am]me.

Here's a [Am]health to the [Em]company, and [G]one to my [Am]lass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all out of one [G]glass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all grief to ref[G*]rain,
For we [Am]may or might [Em]never all [G]meet here a[Am]gain

Our [Am]ship lies at [Em]anchor, she's [G]ready to [Am]dock,
I [C]wish her safe [Am]landing, without any [G]shock,
If [C]ever I should [Am]meet you, by land or by [G]sea,
I will [Am]always re[Em]member your [G]kindness to [Am]me.

Here's a [Am]health to the [Em]company, and [G]one to my
[Am]lass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all out of one [G]glass,
Let us [C]drink and be [Am]merry, all grief to ref[G*]rain,
For we [Am]may or might [Em]never all [G]meet here a[Am]gain
